ALUMNI ON CAMPUS

Mrs Aparna Sharma (Batch of 1996), Managing Consultant, Surya Consultants visited the campus to engage with the first year students and introduced them to the power of storytelling through real life experiences. She also gave a review of her maiden book 'Reality Bytes – The Role of HR in today's world' and signed copies for the students.

Mr Padmakar Kappagantula (Batch of 1984), Director-HR, BPCL visited the campus and touched upon his professional experiences across the years. He also described how he made an uncommon choice of staying with a single organisation across the span of his career.

Mr V J Rao (Batch of 1977) visited the campus for an engrossing session on the various dimensions of HR and current challenge for the students of first year. He talked about his personal reflections and vast experience in the field of HR. He also gave a review of his book 'HR Here and Now – The Making of Quintessential People Champion' and signed some copies for the students.
